

<https://ddasproject.eu>

Democratic Dialogue at school: An online game-based training tool on Democratic Dialogue for Teachers
Training course for school teams, teachers and school leaders in Europe

Handout | “Dealing with quarrels in our school”

In our school, there are quarrels and incidents of violence very often/from time to time. Boys and girls, children from other countries, fans of rival teams, students from different socio-economic backgrounds or ..... (you are free to fill in further) are often in verbal or physical conflict with each other and sometimes they even arrange to “fight” during breaks or after school. The reasons behind these incidents are..... As a consequence,.....”

TASK FOR THE GROUP

1. After reading the above introduction assigned to your pair/group please have a discussion with your pair/team and develop your short real or imaginary scenarios, based on your personal experience, knowledge and opinions.

You have to describe your scenario and explain the reasons behind the conflict and its consequences. The following questions are given to facilitate your:

- What is going on?
  - Who is involved in this conflict and who is affected?
  - What are the reasons behind this conflict?
  - What are the consequences?
2. You have 15-20 minutes to prepare.
  3. Then you will be asked to present your thoughts/answers on your task. Each pair/group will have 5 minutes to present and you should decide to have 1 spokesperson per group.
  4. After each presentation the other pairs/groups will be asked to share their thoughts and solution proposals on each scenario. Group discussion.

Funded by the European Union

This project has been funded with support from the European Commission under the Erasmus+ Programme. This publication reflects the views only of the author, and the Commission cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information contained therein. [Project Number: 2021-1-BE02-KA220-SCH-000032794]